MINUTES OF THE 2025 ANNUAL COLNEY HEATH PARISH COUNCIL ELECTORATE MEETING HELD AT COLNEY HEATH JMI SCHOOL THURSDAY 22 MAY 2025, 6.30pm

1. ANNOUNCEMENTS & DECLARATIONS

None received.

2. APOLOGIES

Councillor Pettit

3. APPROVAL OF THE MINUTES

Minutes of meeting held 9 May 2024 were duly proposed, seconded and approved as a true record of the meeting held.

4. ANNUAL REPORT FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF THE PARISH COUNCIL

Apologies were passed onto to all for the cancellation of the previous Parish Council meeting but all staff were no back in post. The Chairman then spoke about the past 12 months and what was hoping to be achieved in 2025/26. Thanks were expressed to former councillor John Clemow who resigned earlier this year. Thanks also to all current councillors, the Clerk and all staff for their work this year. A special mention to a former councillor for their work on Ellenbrook Quarry and also thanks to the Neighbourhood Plan Project Officer (voluntary) who does so much on planning challenges. Welcome to Councillor Liz Needham and looking forward to working with all District and County Councillors again this year, it was noted that County Councillor John Hale had been particularly supportive of the Parish Council this year. The Chair of Council raised the Parish Council concerns over private cameras overlooking open spaces and play areas asking that if anyone has one they ensure checking if registration is required with the ICO (Information Commissioners Office).

5. QUESTIONS FROM THE PARISHIONERS/ELECTORATE

Questions were noted on the following topics:

- CCTV to assist with flytipping from SADC, put a camera on Warrens Farm Track

Meeting ended at 7.03pm
